

We love Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. This has changed family life in our home. We no longer get 20+ telemarketing calls per day. We don't get ANY!! Please do not do anything that will weaken Indiana's excellent Telephone Privacy law. You would be much wiser to install regulations that would emulate Indiana's solution to the gross invasion of privacy and lack of harmony caused by unregulated and unsolicited telemarketing.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sharon Woloshin